Introduction:

National Fund for Cultural Heritage (NFCH) was established in April 1994 through an Act of Parliament, which is known as National Fund for Cultural Heritage Act (Act VIII of 1994).

Main Functions:

The Primary purpose of the Fund is to promote the conservation and preservation of national heritage of Pakistan through various means, including financial and technical assistance and to create awareness amongst the people for appreciating the preservation of archaeological, architectural, historical and cultural heritage of Pakistan.

The management, overall control and supervision of the affairs of the Fund are vested in the Board of Governors.
